NOTE VERBALE DATED 2 MARCH 1992 FROM THE PERMANENT REPRESENTATIVE OF GUYANA TO THE UNITED NATIONS ADDRESSED TO THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

The Permanent Representative of Guyana to the United Nations presents his compliments to the Secretary-General of the United Nations and has the honour to forward the following response to his note of 16 December 1991.

Guyana has no arms industry and has never purchased weapons on behalf of or traded in military equipment with Yugoslavia. Guyana does not plan to encourage or facilitate the sale of weapons or military equipment to Yugoslavia. Guyana has therefore complied fully with the provision of Security Council resolution 713 (1991).
